- ○ Golden Cavadoodle
- ○ 100% Cavalier
- ○ Retiring Parent
  If you're interested in a retiring parent, we ask that you: read our guide, "5 Things to Consider Before Adopting a Retiring Parent"; agree to enroll the dog in training with us or a trainer of your choice; and understand that an older dog is not automatically fully trained.

Preferred Gender?

Select one:

Are you ready for a puppy now, or planning for later?

☐ Now ☐ Later / Not sure yet

Not sure yet? A few things that might help: If timing is the main factor, ask us about boarding, our In-Home Puppy Experience, or 4-week intensive/customized training. If cost is the main factor, ask us about available payment plan options. If transport is the main factor, we work with trusted transport services — rates generally start around $200 depending on distance and service level.

In order to meet your expectations and ensure the happiness of the puppy and your family, we'd appreciate your answers to the questions below.

1) How many dogs have you (and your spouse or significant other) raised? Please describe your experiences with raising puppies and having dogs in your life.

2) Who will be the primary care giver during the day for the puppy/dog?

---

3) How much indoor and outdoor space do you have for a dog to play?

---

4) How many children in your home and what ages?

---

5) Will taking care of your children or other responsibilities make it more challenging for you to care for the puppy's housetraining, obedience training and attention/care needs?

6) Are you prepared to care for the growing puppy in terms of obedience training, veterinary care, feeding quality food, and to spay/neuter your pet?

7) Will your lifestyle allow you to give the puppy/dog the ongoing attention and exercise that it needs?

8) What is your discipline style?

9) If you later discover that introducing a puppy into your home was a mistake (for any reason) will you agree to contact us before taking any other action to sell or place the dog in another home?
